

Peter J. Strauss

[Of The Strauss Law Firm in Hilton Head, South Carolina]

CRYSTAL
CRUISES

The Southpac Group and AmeriCaptive are pleased to present Peter Strauss as a featured speaker aboard the 2011 Southpac-AmeriCaptive Cruise on the Crystal Symphony from March 6-17, 2011. His presentations will focus on captive insurance planning techniques for high-income individuals, and the interplay between captive insurance and asset protection.

Mr. Strauss is the Managing Member of The Strauss Law Firm, LLC, located on Hilton Head Island, South Carolina. His firm is devoted to providing estate and tax planning, asset protection, international business, and captive insurance solutions to hundreds of individuals, families, and business owners located both in the United States as well as internationally. The Strauss Law Firm is deeply rooted in the Hilton Head Island Community, and Mr. Strauss serves on the Board of Trustees for Low Country Legal Aid, Inc., as a Board Member for the Children's Relief Fund, and regularly volunteers for various non-profit organizations in the community. He has been named as a Charter Member to the Board of Directors for Water Missions-Belize, and he regularly speaks at public seminars, professional society meetings, and Continuing Legal Education conferences. Mr. Strauss is a graduate of the New England School of Law, and he holds an LL.M. in Estate Planning from the University of Miami. He also serves on the Board of Advisors to the Southpac Offshore Planning Institute.
